

Terms & Conditions

Edinburgh Bar Show is a strictly trade-only event for bartenders and those who work within the on-trade drinks industry. You may be asked to provide proof of profession after registering.

- You must be aged 18 or over to attend Edinburgh Bar Show.
- You are required to carry a form of photo-ID (driving licence, passport, proof of age cards with the 'PASS' logo, or a national identity card) as we practice a 'Think 25' policy.
- All attendees must hold a valid trade pass to attend Edinburgh Bar Show. Please register for your pass at www.edinburghbarshow.co.uk
- You can only register for one trade pass per person/email address.
- You must not share or give your trade pass to anyone else.
- Trade passes are valid for entry to seminars, bar takeovers, parties, demonstrations, tastings and events. Places in each are limited and entry is offered on a first come basis.
- Trade passes do not enable discount or complimentary drinks. Drink prices are decided by the participating bars.
- A limited number of passes are available for press and media. Accreditation can be applied for by contacting hello@edinburghbarshow.co.uk. Please include links to your platforms in your application along with an outline on why you wish to attend Edinburgh Bar Show.
- The distribution or display of branded materials is not permitted at Edinburgh Bar Show.
- Organisers reserve the right to cancel registrations and refuse entry to any element of Edinburgh Bar Show.
- Trade passes remain the property of Edinburgh Bar Show and can be confiscated by the organisers at their discretion.
